

The International Association of the Bell Tower of Collioure/Association Internationale du Clocher de Collioure (AICC)

Association governed by the law of July 1st, 1901 having for object:

- The promotion and restoration of heritage in its historical, intangible, cultural and natural aspects,
- The transmission of knowledge and enlightenment , the acquisition of cultural property to promote the sharing of cultures for the restoration of the bell tower of Collioure and the church of Notre Dame des Anges,
- The implementation of the necessary means to increase the notoriety and visibility of the actions carried out and the information of the various audiences on the research and the use of the funds resulting from the fundraising activities.

As part of the restoration of the Church of Notre Dame des Anges and its Bell Tower , with the help of patronage, the Association will:

- Inform the various publics about the research and the use of the required funds for the renovation work.
- Make attractive and accessible actions of restorations and animations of the site and foster the accomplishment of projects which will reinforce the visibility and the notoriety of the image of Collioure internationally, on French territory and in Spain.

Article 9 of the statutes provides the possibility for the association to receive grants from the State, the Region, Departments and local communities, donations and all other resources authorized by the laws and regulations in force.

The management of the Association is considered to have a disinterested character (art.15 of the statutes: all functions remain free and voluntary, excluding the costs incurred by the fulfillment of the mandate, reimbursed on receipts).

Membership to the association amounts to THIRTY EUROS (30€)

It is important to know that your donation to the Association is tax deductible (a receipt will be sent to you individually):

- 75% of your ISF, if you are eligible for this deduction up to a limit of 50 000 €, corresponding to a donation of 66 666 €
 - A 66% of your income tax, up to 20% of your taxable income.
-

Name and first name of the donor:

Address :

Email : _____ @ _____

Amount: _____ €

Donation method : * cash * cheques

Association internationale du Clocher de Collioure, 1 avenue Aristide Maillol, 66190, Collioure